Dear Harry:

This is to acknowledge receipt, with our deep appreciation, of your first of three annual contributions of $50,000 to help support the APS Clinical Practice Guidelines Development and Dissemination Program.

As you know APS is taking the lead in developing evidence based guidelines by completing guidelines for pain in sickle cell disease, updating the AHCPR Cancer Pain Guidelines and developing guidelines on other pain topics over the next 18 months. We strongly believe that we can positively influence the quality of pain management through this effort.

Your continued support of APS in this and so many other programs is greatly appreciated and we look forward to working with you in the future.

Sincerely,

Gerald Gebhart

Dear Dr. Lazarus:

It wanted to thank you for taking the time to talk to me last week about the efforts of the APS Clinical Practice Guidelines Committee. I had heard of your previous support of the Society, and I was not disappointed.

As you contemplate the level of support potentially available from Purdue Frederick, I want to remind you of the groundbreaking nature of the efforts upon which the Society is about to embark. We not only intend to implement an ongoing guideline development process, beginning with the four to which I have previously referred in my earlier letter; but of equal importance is a new commitment from the Society to invest the funds necessary to assure that the guidelines are used. This will entail a major provider and patient education effort, the likes of which have not been seen emanating from a professional society. Which is why we need your support of a magnitude significantly greater than in the past.

What we are hoping is that Purdue Frederick will be able to match the gift of Janssen of $500,000 over three years. As a Charter Member of the Friends of APS you will receive a full business plan for the efforts which will encompass a detailed description of the program, time horizons, workplan, and budget. You will also receive quarterly reports on our progress. Obviously, we expect that your gift will be linked to adequate progress as demonstrated in those reports. We intend to ask you to contribute advice and counsel as we progress which will not be requested of organizations other than those in our Charter membership group. We are particularly hopeful that the expertise of Purdue Frederick will be made available to our Committee as we plan and implement the guidelines education and marketing program.

As you requested, I will be calling you during the week of December 15 to get your response. In the meantime, if I can provide you with additional information on our plans, please do not hesitate to contact me directly. I am sure that the members of the Committee would be glad to answer any of your questions as well.

Sincerely Yours,

Bettina Kurowski xx

Dear Dr. Lazarus:

I want to thank you for the opportunity to speak with you recently about the potential interest of your organization in our Clinical Practice Guidelines Program. We have taken your comments and suggestions quite seriously and incorporated them into the enclosed proposal as appropriate. We hope you will agree that the Program is more exciting and better than ever.

We are hopeful that after carefully considering our request, you will find it possible to become a Friend of the APS Clinical Practice Guidelines Program. I will call you in a couple of weeks to answer any questions you may have and inquire about your interest level in our efforts. In the meantime, should you want to speak to someone about the Program, please feel free to call any of the members of the Steering Committee or Richard Muir, the Executive Director of our Society. Each of their phone numbers is contained in the request.

We look forward to your reply in anticipation of the possibilities afforded patients throughout the world through your generosity.

Sincerely yours,

Bettina Kurowski, Ph.D.
